Master Facilitators

Jodi Jan Larson, MCC - is a maverick in the profession of coaching bringing over 15 years of coaching and coach training experience to this leader team. Jodi has expressed her passion for generating exceptional leaders by training thousands of coaches to an extraordinary standard that defines the profession of coaching today. Jodi has authored three text books that support the training of coaches globally. She is undaunted in her stand for the greatness of human beings and their fulfillment on creating all of what they are committed to in their personal and professional life.

Christine Sachs, PCC - Christine Sachs is a Professional Certified Coach (International Coach Federation-credentialed) and Accomplishment Coaching-certified leadership coach. Christine is especially skilled at working with high performers in examining and understanding what shifts and/or changes will propel them to their desired results, without making sacrifices (health, marriage, family) on the other end. Clients report that working with Christine has been the catalyst for unprecedented risk and reward.
